

Georgia Southern University

Digital Commons@Georgia Southern

Margaret Mitchell Letters to Laura Dorough
Dyar

Special Collections at Zach S. Henderson
Library (Statesboro)

6-22-1944

Letter to Laura Dorough Dyar from Peggy Mitchell Marsh, June 22, 1944

Peggy Mitchell Marsh

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/margaretmitchell>

Part of the United States History Commons, and the Women's History Commons

This letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections at Zach S. Henderson Library (Statesboro) at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Margaret Mitchell Letters to Laura Dorough Dyar by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

Mrs. J. A. Dyar

Royston

Georgia

Dear Mother Dyar:

This note is for the other Dyars as well as you. We appreciated so much the kind thoughts all of you sent to us. The telegram from Hubert Junior was waiting for me when I came home from the hospital and I realized the news of Father's death must have been on the radio to have reached Royston so fast. I want you to tell Hubert Junior that friends have kept the little china vase he gave me in Athens filled with cape jessamine these last few days, and so I have had a constant reminder of him.

Your note which arrived this morning was very sweet and I thank you for sending it.

With affectionate regards to all of you,

Peggy Mitchell
Peggy March

June 22, 1944